(Jointly Administered)

AFFIDAVIT OF ADAM G. LANDIS IN SUPPORT OF THE APPLICATION OF THE DEBTORS TO APPROVE THE EMPLOYMENT AND RETENTION OF LANDIS RATH & COBB LLP AS BANKRUPTCY CO-COUNSEL, NUNC PRO TUNC TO THE PETITION DATE, PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY CODE
SECTION 327(a), BANKRUPTCY RULES 2014 AND 2016 AND LOCAL RULE 2014-1

STATE OF DELAWARE)
) ss:
COUNTY OF NEW CASTLE)

I, Adam G. Landis, being duly sworn, does depose and say as follows:

1. I am a partner in the firm of Landis Rath & Cobb LLP (“LRC”) and I am duly authorized to make this Affidavit on behalf of LRC. I submit this Affidavit in accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 327(a), rules 2014(a) and 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) in connection with the Application of the Debtors to Approve the Employment and Retention of Landis Rath & Cobb LLP as Bankruptcy Co-Counsel, Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date, Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 327(a), Bankruptcy Rules 2014 and 2016 and Local Rule 2014-1 (the “Application”).² I make this Affidavit on personal knowledge or on information and belief as set forth herein.

¹ The last four digits of FTX Trading Ltd.’s and Alameda Research LLC’s tax identification number are 3288 and 4063 respectively. Due to the large number of debtor entities in these Chapter 11 Cases, a complete list of the Debtors and the last four digits of their federal tax identification numbers is not provided herein. A complete list of such information may be obtained on the website of the Debtors’ claims and noticing agent at <https://cases.ra.kroll.com/FTX>.

² All capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Application.

2. I am admitted to practice law in the states of Delaware and New York, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

INTRODUCTION

3. On November 11, 2022 and, with respect to Debtor West Realm Shires Inc., on November 14, 2022 (collectively, the “Petition Date”), the Debtors commenced the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) by filing voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”).

4. LRC was retained by the Debtors by letter agreement executed November 10, 2022 (the “Engagement Agreement”) to provide the Debtors advice in connection with the restructuring issues it was facing.

5. I believe that LRC is a “disinterested person,” as the term is defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(14) because LRC, its partners, associates, and employees: (a) are not creditors, equity security holders or insiders of the Debtors; (b) are not and were not, within the two (2) years before the Petition Date, members, officers or employees of the Debtors; (c) have not been an investment banker for a security of the Debtors, or an attorney for such investment banker in connection with the offer, sale or issuance of a security of the Debtors; (d) are not and never have been a member, officer or employee of the Debtors or of an investment banker; and (e) do not have any interest materially adverse to the interests of the estates or of any class of creditors or equity security holders by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with or interest in, the Debtors or an investment banker.

6. LRC did not represent the Debtors prior to the execution of the Engagement Agreement.

7. LRC presently employs ten (10) full-time attorneys and has a sophisticated and diversified practice that includes representation of many financial institutions and commercial entities, some of which or its affiliates may be creditors or parties-in-interest in these Chapter 11 Cases. Consequently, LRC's attorneys may in the past have represented and may presently or in the future represent entities that are or were related to claimants or interest holders of the Debtors in matters unrelated to these Chapter 11 Cases. No LRC attorney, however, represents or will represent any party other than the Debtors in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases.

LRC DISCLOSURE PROCEDURES

8. In connection with LRC's proposed retention in these Chapter 11 Cases, and in preparing this Affidavit, I followed a set of procedures developed by LRC to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and orders of this Court (the "LRC Disclosure Procedures").

9. Under the LRC Disclosure Procedures, I have reviewed the names of all known parties-in-interest in these cases provided to me by the Debtors (each, a "Potential Party," and all such entities, collectively, the "Potential Parties") as of the date hereof.

10. I make this Affidavit based in material part on the list of Potential Parties the Debtors have been able to identify to date, as well as LRC's business records, including its conflict database, and the responses to conflict checks circulated throughout LRC (generally, the "LRC Conflict Identification System"). LRC maintains and updates the LRC Conflict Identification System in the ordinary course of its business, and it is the regular practice of the firm to make and maintain such records.

11. The LRC Conflict Identification System was created to include: (a) every matter for which the firm is now or has been engaged; (b) the entity by which the firm is now or has been engaged; (c) the identity of related parties; (d) the identity of adverse parties; and (e) the responsible attorney in the firm who handles the matter.

12. It is LRC's policy that no new matter may be accepted or opened without the attorney responsible for such matter completing and submitting to the LRC Conflict Identification System all information necessary to check each matter for conflicts, including the identity of the prospective client, the matter and, to the extent known, any adverse, potentially adverse and related parties. Accordingly, the LRC Conflict Identification System is updated for every new matter undertaken by LRC. Of course, the LRC Conflict Identification System relies on the completeness of the information submitted by individual attorneys in any new matter.

13. Following the submission of the Potential Parties, a list was created of all potential matches between the Potential Parties and the names already included in the LRC Conflict Identification System. When it is determined that there is an existing relationship with a Potential Party, LRC attorneys discuss the nature of the representations of, respectively, the debtor, all known creditors, and the Potential Party. In all cases, I concluded that LRC did not represent a Potential Party in connection with the Debtors.

14. LRC's corporate restructuring and bankruptcy practice, corporate practice and litigation practice involve the representation of a wide variety of clients with various interests in matters unrelated to these Chapter 11 Cases. As such, LRC appears in cases, proceedings and transactions involving many different attorneys, accountants, financial consultants, and investment bankers, some of whom may now or in the future represent claimants or other parties-in-interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

LRC'S CONNECTIONS WITH POTENTIAL PARTIES

15. Based on my review of the Potential Parties and the report from LRC's Conflict Identification System, I determined that LRC has or had a relationship with certain Potential Parties identified in "Exhibit 1" attached hereto. Parties included in LRC's conflict check are identified in "Exhibit 2" attached hereto.

16. Except as set forth on "Exhibit 1," LRC does not have any connection with the Debtors, any creditor or party-in-interest, or its respective attorneys and accountants, the United States Trustee or any person employed in the office of the United States Trustee.

17. LRC does not represent, has not represented, and will not represent any entities, other than the Debtors, in matters related to these Chapter 11 Cases.

18. I believe that the proposed retention of LRC is not prohibited by or improper under Bankruptcy Rule 5002.

19. Neither I, nor LRC, nor any partner or associate thereof, as far as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents an interest adverse to the Debtors. Accordingly, I believe LRC is a "disinterested person" as defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(14).

20. The Debtors have numerous relationships and creditors. Consequently, although every reasonable effort has been made to discover and eliminate the possibility of conflict, including the efforts outlined above, LRC is unable to state with absolute certainty whether one of its clients or an affiliated entity holds a claim or otherwise is a party-in-interest in these Chapter 11 Cases. To the extent that any information disclosed herein requires supplementation, amendment or modification on LRC's completion of further analysis or as additional information becomes available to it, a supplemental affidavit will be submitted to the Court.

21. Based on the foregoing, I believe that LRC and the professionals it employs are qualified to represent the Debtors in the matters for which LRC is proposed to be retained.

COMPENSATION

22. Subject to this Court's approval, LRC will charge for its legal services on an hourly basis in accordance with its standard hourly rates in effect on the date services are rendered. The current rates of LRC partners range from $750.00 - $1,075.00 per hour; associates range from $410.00 - $550.00 per hour; paralegals are $295.00 per hour; and legal assistants range from $145.00 - $180.00 per hour. The hourly rates set forth above are LRC's standard hourly rates for work of this nature. These rates are set at a level designed to compensate fairly the firm for the work of its attorneys and professional staff, and to cover fixed and other routine overhead expenses. These rates may increase from time-to-time in accordance with LRC's established billing practices and procedures, and other LRC partners and associates may be involved in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases, as required. LRC will maintain detailed, contemporaneous records of time and any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the rendering of legal services described in the Application by category and nature of the service rendered, consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules and the United States Trustee's Guidelines.

23. In addition to the hourly rates set forth above, it is LRC's policy to charge its clients for certain other expenses incurred in connection with its representation of the client. These charges include, among other things, telecopier (outgoing only) toll and other charges, mail and express mail charges, special or hand delivery charges, photocopying charges (at the rate of $0.10 per page in cases in which LRC is paid by a debtor's estate), travel expenses, expenses for "working meals," computerized legal research, transcription costs, document retrieval charges, as well as non-ordinary overhead expenses such as secretarial overtime. LRC will charge the Debtors for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the firm's other clients, or as required by the Local Rules.

24. Within ninety (90) days of the Petition Date, LRC received a retainer payment on November 14, 2022 from Debtor West Realm Shires Inc. in the amount of $300,000 (the "Retainer").³ As set forth in the Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 329 and 504, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016 and Local Rule 2016-1 (the "Rule 2016 Statement") attached to the Application as Exhibit C LRC will hold the Retainer balance as an evergreen retainer to be held by LRC as security throughout these Chapter 11 Cases until LRC's fees and expenses are awarded by final order and payable to LRC.

25. LRC intends to apply to the Court for payment of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other orders entered in these Chapter 11 Cases for all services performed and expenses incurred after the Petition Date.

26. No promises have been received by LRC, or any partner or associate thereof, as to payment or compensation in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Neither LRC nor any of its attorneys has entered into an agreement or understanding to share compensation with respect to the representation of the Debtors as described in Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b).

27. LRC has agreed to accept as compensation such sums as may be allowed by the Court based on the professional time spent, the rates charged for such services, the necessity of such services to the administration of the estates, the reasonableness of the time spent in relation to the results achieved, and the complexity, importance and nature of the problems, issues or tasks addressed in this case.

STATEMENT REGARDING U.S. TRUSTEE GUIDELINES

28. As this Court is aware, the Executive Office of the United States Trustees (the “EOUST”) adopted Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases (the “U.S. Trustee Guidelines”). By their terms, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines “apply to the [U.S. Trustee’s] review of applications for compensation filed by attorneys in larger chapter 11 cases,” and are intended as an update to the original guidelines adopted by the EOUST in 1996.

29. Among other things, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines ask attorneys in larger chapter 11 cases to provide additional documentation and make significant disclosures in connection with their retention under Bankruptcy Code section 1103 and for compensation under Bankruptcy Code section 330. As the U.S. Trustee Guidelines themselves acknowledge, “the Guidelines do not supersede local rules, court orders, or other controlling authority[.]”

30. The Debtors and LRC intend to make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee’s requests for information and additional disclosures as set forth in the U.S. Trustee Guidelines both in connection with this Application and the interim and final fee applications to be filed by LRC.

ATTORNEY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO THE U.S. TRUSTEE GUIDELINES

31. The following is provided in response to the request for additional information set forth in paragraph D.1 of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines.

Question: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing arrangements for this engagement?

Response: No.

Question: Do any of the professionals included in this engagement vary their rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: If you represented the client in the twelve (12) months prepetition, disclose your billing rates and material financial terms for the prepetition engagement, including any adjustments during the 12 months prepetition. If your billing rates and material financial terms have changed postpetition, explain the difference and the reasons for the difference?

Response: Other than the periodic adjustments described in the Application, LRC's hourly rates and financial terms for the services performed prior to the Petition Date are identical to the hourly rates and financial terms of the postpetition engagement proposed herein.

Question: Has your client approved your prospective budget and staffing plan, and, if so, for what budget period?

Response: LRC, in conjunction with the Debtors, is developing a prospective budget and staffing plan for these Chapter 11 Cases.

32. In conclusion, insofar as I have been able to ascertain and subject to the disclosures herein contained, neither LRC nor any member, counsel or associate thereof, represents any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates in the matters upon which LRC is to be engaged. Accordingly, I believe that LRC is a “disinterested person” within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 101(14).
